The Mendelssohnian Theory

Sixteen-year-old Max and 10-year-old Tessa were fully prepared for another horrible summer vacation. While they always hoped to go somewhere fun like Disney World or Universal Studios, they usually went somewhere weird and cheap that their father, former boy bander Don Masters, found in an ad in a truck stop coupon magazine. But this year was different. Where they went couldn't be found on any map or in any truck stop coupon book. They passed through a portal to a place called Turtle Island, an alternate version of America that diverged from our history before the pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock. It was there where they met world famous action movie star Jordie Paine -- star of such films as I Plan to Kill You Now and the sequel, I Plan to Kill You Now, Too, the ninja film, Chuck Butcher: Sword Wielding Jackal, as well as the light-hearted romp, Harry Hinklehoffer and the Giant Dancing Toad of East Nebraska -- who would be their guide in this strange new world. Jordie, they later learned, brought the Masters family to Turtle Island for a very specific reason. Because they look just like the ruthless first family of Turtle Island, the Masters are pawns in a coup to overthrow the dictator. But things don't go as planned and the Masters wind up in the Survival Games, Turtle Island's national pastime/system of justice where criminals competitors, or crimpetitors, compete for their freedom. In this scifi comedy, the stakes are very simple -- if they win, they rule, if they lose, they must suffer the consequences.

#1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER • The twentieth anniversary edition of the classic story of an incredible group of students and the teacher who inspired them, featuring updates on the students' lives, new journal entries, and an introduction by Erin Gruwell Now a public television documentary, Freedom Writers: Stories from the Heart In 1994, an idealistic first-year teacher in Long Beach, California, named Erin Gruwell confronted a room of “unteachable, at-risk” students. She had intercepted a note with an ugly racial caricature and angrily declared that this was precisely the sort of thing that led to the Holocaust. She was met by uncomprehending looks—none of her students had heard of one of the defining moments of the twentieth century. So she rebooted her entire curriculum, using treasured books such as Anne Frank’s diary as her guide to combat intolerance and misunderstanding. Her students began recording their thoughts and feelings in their own diaries, eventually dubbing themselves the “Freedom Writers.”

No Daffodils, No Clouds, like Tom Lyford's earlier poetry books, is a compendium of baby boomer Americana. The table of contents listing, with everything from “Brat Packs” and “Idiots' Guide to Wormholes” to “A Terrible Thing to Waste” and “Poem Nazis,” reads like the big board of Alex Trebeck's Jeopardy categories. Allow Tom Lyford to personally introduce you to his unwitting mentors Janis Joplin, Bob Dylan, Tom Waits, Leonard Cohen, Stephen King, J. D. Salinger, and Ray Bradbury. Accept the tokens he offers for passage back through the Twilight Zone turnstile to relive those sights and sounds and smells of your '50s and '60s drive-in movie theater and roller skating pavilion. Contemplate his long view as to where we've been, and where we're headed. But you'll discover no “wandering lonely as a cloud” or “host of daffodils” here. Why? You're not competing for attention only against other similar products. You're competing against your customers' friends and family and viral videos and cute puppies. To win attention these days you must ask a different question: "How can we help?" Jay Baer's Youtility offers a new approach that cuts through the clutter: marketing that is truly, inherently useful. What's Your Green Goldfish is based on the simple premise that employees are the key drivers of customer experience and that "Happy Employees Create Happy Customers." The book focuses on 15 different ways to drive employee engagement and reinforce a strong corporate culture. It's the second book in the goldfish trilogy. The first book was an Amazon Best Seller entitled, What's Your Purple Goldfish. Purple focused on customers, whereby Green focuses on employees. Both books are based on a revolutionary new approach called marketing g.l.u.e. (marketing by giving little unexpected extras). The book is based on the findings of the Green Goldfish Project, an effort which crowd sourced 1,001 examples of signature added value for employees. Key themes emerged from the Project. The book is filled with over 200 examples. PRAISE FOR WHAT'S YOUR GREEN GOLDFISH "Stan is the sherpa that guides executives along the journey between the heart and mind of business stakeholders. Stakeholders aren't always customers though. At a time when company vision and culture matters more than ever, it takes inspired and engaged employees to bring them to life." - Brian Solis, author of What's the Future of Business #WTF, The End of Business as Usual and Engage "So often overlooked, and so very vital to building company value empowering employees to support each other and the brand. Stan Phelps 'gets' it and Green Goldfish will walk you step-by-step though achieving this critical goal." - Ted Rubin, author of Return on Relationship "Great customer centric organizations only exist because of engaged and empowered employees. and reward their employees. If you see value in truly building an "A Team," Green Goldfish will be, without question, your single best reference." - Chris Zane, Founder and President of Zane's Cycles, author of Reinventing the Wheel, the Science of Creating Lifetime Customers "Stan Phelps takes customer service to a whole new level by focusing on EMPLOYEE service, and how to do well by your employees - so they take care of your customers. Packed with stories, insights and R.U.L.E.S. any company can follow, this book is a must-read for managers of companies of all shapes and sizes who know that employees don't leave jobs - they leave managers, especially when they don't feel your love and appreciation. Pick this up, and start engaging your team and making more GREEN - Phil Gerbyshak, author of The Naked Truth of Social Media "Our large-scale research shows unequivocally that engaged employees are more likely to work longer, try harder, make more suggestions for improvement, recruit others to join their company, and go out of their way to help customers. They even take less sick time. Companies can tap into the enormous value of engaged employees by following the 15 ideas that Stan lays out in this book." - Bruce Temkin, author of The Six Laws of Customer Experience "Too often, the actual employment experience delivered on the job does not measure up to the version sold to job candidates during the interview process. In What's Your Green Goldfish, Stan Phelps offers 15 ways to close the gap." - Steve Curtin, author of Delight Your Customers: 7 Simple Ways to Raise Your Customer Service from Ordinary to Extraordinary (AMACOM, June 2013) "In What's Your Green Goldfish, Stan Phelps brilliantly applies the idea of 'doing a

A path to educational justice for all students - one that encourages teachers, parents, and their communities to adopt the rebellious spirit and bold and creative methods of abolitionists Educator Bettina Love argues that the U.S educational system is maintained by and profits from the suffering of children of color. Reformers offer survival tactics in the forms of test-taking skills, acronyms, grit labs, and character education which she calls the Education Survival Complex. To dismantle the educational survival complex and to achieve educational freedom--not reform--educators, parents, and community leaders must approach education through the imagination, determination, boldness and urgency of an abolitionist. Drawing on her experiences as a student and teacher, Love highlights young community leaders, artists and activists who are advocating for social change and inclusion. She persuasively argues that educators must teach students about racial violence, oppression, and how to make sustainable change in their communities through radical civic initiatives and movements. She concludes by showing how young leaders are expanding our ideas of civic engagement and

The Mendelssohnian Theory: A Path through Destiny A tale of a boy who grew up as a hunted man then became a hunter. In the future, Adam, 16, a Jewish resident of the dome-covered Jewish Reservation is discovered to be the last step in the chain to make mankind a higher sophisticated being. Chased by powers and corporations wishing to put their hands on him and use his special skills for the realization of their own gains, the boy escapes across the solar system. They killed his parents, hurt his friends and now they try to prevent him from working alone. Adam fights for his life and for the right to control his own fate. Even in a world as complex as the Earth, a single person has the power to change his own destiny and the future determination of all mankind. Imagine a world made by unknown creators, a world that makes sense only by assembling a puzzle, which is a part of a larger enigmatic operation. A world tangled up in probabilistic chains that lead to human and technological progress. Completing this puzzle would lead to a quantum leap in human progression. This is the essence of the official religion on the future Earth of this story. The Mendelssohnian Theory is based on the teachings of one great man: Moshe Mendelssohn.

Do you frequently find yourself asking, "Why?" This book will, prayerfully, prompt you to see God acting in every circumstance in your life, from the mundane to the monumental; to appreciate that the Creator does, indeed, cause "all things [to] work for good to them that love God, to them who are called according to His purpose." (Romans 8:28) Through prose and poems based on personal experiences, the author shares pieces of her journey through faith-building events. If you have trouble focusing on God and His agenda, this book will sharpen your vision and lead you to reconsider God's purpose for the events in which you may find yourself involved on a daily basis.

As providers of broadband access and Internet search engines, they can control online expression. Their online content restrictions—from obstructing e-mail to censoring cablecasts—are considered legal because of recent changes in free speech law. In this book, Dawn Nunziato criticizes recent changes in free speech law in which only the government need refrain from censoring speech, while companies are permitted to self-regulate. By

Virtual Earth Graduate is unique. What if many things you think you know about Physics, Earth History and Religion are false? What if this is not our planet and we're not here alone? Are there hybrids here with us? Is Man being visited by 3D Extraterrestrial intelligences? Is someone on the Moon? What would have to be true about planet Earth for it to look the way it does? Who built all the monolithic walls, monuments and buildings that Man cannot even duplicate today? What are the chances that Earth is a Simulation as current Physics proposes? While not 100% conclusive, the evidence is tantalizing. In short Are you really living on the planet you think you are? These and more issues are examined in this book and will enlighten the reader - probably for the first time in years. If you have ever wondered about the Origin of Man, the nature of UFOs, the Apollo Moon Mission and the possibility of intelligence on Mars, Creation versus Evolution, and why nothing certain is known about Man's history backwards of AD 900, then this book is for you. The author has done over 50 years of research into these topics, closely examining Earth History, Quantum Physics, Genetics, and several Religions and more, and has discovered the fascinating answers to what Earth is, what Man really is, why there are sociopaths, why the constants in Science are changing, and what we are doing here on Earth. He does not pretend to have all the answers but those he does have form a coherent and unexpected picture of Man and Earth, in effect connecting almost all the dots. The purpose of this book is to wake up to Man's true nature and divine potential, the real nature of Earth, Moon and Mars, who is here with us, and why we are here so that the new understanding will serve as enough Light to get souls out of here - as Earth Graduates. The book is not a religious book; it just provides a review of Man and his world as catalyst, examining false beliefs, disinformation, assumptions and attachments that bind souls to the planet and in the last few chapters, it provides suggestions for improving one's life, relationships, and above all - the Light (higher consciousness) to get out of here and move on to something more dynamic in the Multiverse we all inhabit. Man must start to think outside the box that was created for him by those who want to be Lords over the Sheep. This book serves to break that entrapment. At the very least, it is also "brain candy," something to contemplate -- take what you can accept and put the rest on the shelf. The book is not meant to be blindly believed,

"Although written by a property investor, this book is much more about the psychology of success than it is about real estate. Liberally spiced with stories that stir the emotions as well as material to stimulate the mind, the adventures and lessons in this book bring to light the essence of freedom that dwells within us all."--Back cover.
